MAJOR changes to the way healthcare is provided in Bridport will be discussed by senior clinicians today, as plans to restructure NHS services take shape.

Leading healthcare commissioners say "doing nothing is not an option", with sweeping changes to local services in the pipeline.

Senior GPs from the Dorset Clinical Commissioning Group's (CCG) governing body will meet today (Wednesday) to consider new proposals for the future of key NHS services.

Members will consider a "vision" for healthcare in Dorset, including proposals on how the NHS can meet the challenges of the future.

The proposals outline ways to improve GP and primary care services for patients, with more care provided away from hospital settings and closer to people's homes.

They also aim to help staff work more effectively together, while improving access to GP services.

Under the proposals, new health 'hubs' could be created for patients to see a range of professionals, including pharmacists and dentists.

The 'hubs' could also provide other types of treatment, such as physiotherapy, blood tests and minor operations. If approved, the plans will be put to patients in Bridport during a consultation period this summer.

Although no firm proposals have yet been published, councillors and campaigners have already expressed alarm about the possibility of local services being cut or sold off to private providers.

In March, Bridport councillor Dave Rickard said he was concerned that the review would open up the NHS in Dorset to "privatisation by the back door".

And in April, Chris East, a spokesman for the Dorset Health Campaign, told a meeting in Bridport: "Almost without the public noticing, the health service as we know it is being replaced by a system modelled on the US, in which care is delivered by profit-maximising companies."

The CCG has insisted that this is not the case, and warns that urgent action is needed to change the way care is delivered.

Dr Forbes Watson, chair of the Dorset CCG, said: "Our local services must work better together to meet our patients' needs and quality standards within available funds. Doing nothing is not an option because the way we currently deliver care in Dorset isn't as good as it should be and isn't suitable in light of changing and increasing needs from our growing and ageing population."

by Jack Dixon

■ DR Forbes Watson: "Doing nothing is not an option"

In its 'The Need to Change' document, published in January, the CCG reported a predicted shortfall of up to £200million over the next five years, with mounting pressure to tackle a "growing financial challenge".

The CCG's review was launched in October and more than 300 NHS staff have since contributed to the project.

Members of the GP-led organisation's governing body are expected to approve the proposals at today's meeting, before a full public consultation in the summer. Final decisions about the future of healthcare in Dorset will be made in spring 2016.

Dr Watson added: "As the GPs responsible for deciding on the care that is provided in Dorset, we have worked hard since October 2014 to identify solutions to our challenges.

"These are based firmly on national and international evidence and good practice, and will enable us to organise our services more effectively and efficiently to improve care for the people of Dorset.

"The proposals have been led by local clinicians, and their discussions and ideas shared at every stage with NHS staff, patients, carers and members of the public. We look forward to hearing the views of local people during the consultation later this summer."

JANET Barratt-Pearce from Lyme Regis has just returned from a 'trip of lifetime' trekking along the Great Wall of China in aid of Marie Curie Cancer Care.

Originally from Islington in London, Janet first moved to Lyme in the 1990s and her children attended the Woodroffe School. She then moved back to London for a period and became a foster carer before moving back to Lyme about seven years ago.

■ WHY did you want to hike along the Great Wall of China?

I decided to take part after seeing it advertised on a promotional leaflet while my mum, Rita Bryans, was staying at the Marie Curie Hospice in Hampstead, London, before she died last April. She said she would have loved to do it so I decided to do it for her.

■ WHAT did the trek entail?

I left on May 8th for London and then flew to Beijing on May 9th with a group of 25 who were doing the same trip and two guides from Marie Curie. We trekked from Monday to Friday.

It wasn't so much about distance but heights. We went 1,600 feet up on the Monday and 2,500 feet on the Tuesday. The wall was like rubble so the terrain was really hard, it was exhausting. It was quite frightening and lots of people had blisters and foot problems but I was quite lucky.

We walked solidly for four hours and then had lunch before setting off again. Every night we would have to come down a really steep incline off the wall, which was really hard terrain and really hard on the knees, and then we had to walk to our camp.

■ WHERE did you stay?

We stayed in three different camp sites along the way with local Chinese people and lots of them were very poor. It was very bare and basic. I was quite out of my comfort zone and it was a real eye opener. It wasn't your regular tourist trail, real Bear Grylls sort of thing!

There were no showers at the camps so one day a group of us got a lift to a communal shower because we couldn't bare it anymore! Dinner was mainly boiled rice and vegetables and lunch was bread and fruit.

■ DID you enjoy visiting China?

It was a once in a lifetime trip. The landscape was beautiful on the wall. It was a sheer drop either side but it was magnificent. If anyone says they can't do anything I don't believe them, you can do anything if you set your mind to it.

Our guides were fantastic and I will never forget them, and I've become really good friends with the group that did it, we will all keep in touch.

When we had finished we stayed in a hotel in Beijing and went to a peking duck restaurant and it was the most delicious meal I had ever had. We also got to see Chinese acrobats and visit Tiananmen Square. I would like to go back to Beijing as a tourist.

■ HOW much did you raise?

I have raised £3,400 for Marie Curie Cancer Care but people can still sponsor me online at www.justgiving.com/Janet-Barratt-Pearce/. Our whole group has raised £90,000 so far and we think we can make that up to £100,000.

When I was there I wrote a letter to my mum and I managed to hide it in the stonework of the wall, which was really nice for me to be able to do. I would like to thank all those who have supported me and donated, and all the local shops that have had collection boxes for me.

New warning after clifftop crack discovery

VISITORS to West Bay have been warned to steer clear of a potential danger zone on the clifftops, after a huge crack was discovered close to one of the coastal paths.

Coastguards have moved quickly to cordon off the area, after the crack was spotted at the top of Watton Cliff, above the eastern part of Eype Beach, on Friday.

Photographer Doug Chalk, who came across the crack while walking along the coastline, said it looked as though the side of the cliff could collapse "at any moment".

Only a matter of feet from the cliff edge, the crack stretches for between 30 and 50 yards and is around two feet across.

Warning signs and a rope have been placed around the area, and the cliff path has been diverted away from the edge.

Mr Chalk, a freelance photographer from Bridport, found the crack when he was taking pictures of paragliders near the coast on Friday.

Although coastal experts have been quick to reassure visitors that the esplanade itself is not at risk, Mr Chalk said the whole beach should be closed to protect visitors from the impact of any collapse.

by Jack Dixon

"There is a few hundred tonnes of rubble sitting there that could come down at any moment", he told View from Bridport.

"The people at the top are pretty safe and the coastguards are aware of it. But it's the people underneath that are in danger."

Mr Chalk spotted the crack towards the west end of the esplanade, near the beach leading up towards Eype.

His discovery came soon after Bridport Harbour had reported that the cliffs between West Bay and Eype were "very unstable", and that beachgoers should avoid the base of the cliff.

After posting a picture of the crack on his social media page last week, Mr Chalk received a flood of messages, and the image was shared over 2,000 times in a matter of days.

He said he wanted as many people as possible to be aware of the danger, in order to prevent a disastrous accident.

"It is people's safety that has to be the main concern," he said.

"They should be closing the whole beach – it really is that dangerous".

A spokesman for the Jurassic Coast World Heritage Team said natural processes of coastal erosion would have caused the crack to emerge.

The team has warned people to stay away from the cliff edges, but says the esplanade below the cliff is not at risk.

"The crack in the edge of Watton Cliff is above the eastern part of Eype Beach – there is no threat to West Bay esplanade as stated in previous reports", said the spokesman.

"A team from Dorset County Council Countryside Service is currently on site assessing the situation. They will install any temporary warning signs as necessary.

"The crack will have come about through the natural processes of erosion – the very reason why we have this beautiful coastline in the first place. As always, our advice is to stay well away from the edges and base of cliffs, wherever you are on the coast, and always make sure you observe warning signs and stay on official paths."

Tributes paid to A37 crash victim

TRIBUTES have been paid to an 80-year-old woman from Marshwood who tragically died in a car crash last week.

Sheila Staples, pictured, who was remembered as a 'daughter of Dorset' having spent almost all her life in the area, was in the front passenger seat of her car when it collided with a single-decker coach on the A37.

Mrs Staples was pronounced dead at the scene, as emergency teams arrived at the Holywell Cross junction where the fatal crash happened last Wednesday (May 13th).

The driver of the car, an 83-year-old man from Bridport, sustained slight injuries and was taken to Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester.

Mrs Staples, who lived in Birdsmoorgate, near Marshwood, was survived by her husband of 58 years, Clifford, and their extended family.

The crash happened at around 12noon last Wednesday, as the coach, a silver Volvo single-decker coach, and the car, a grey Mitsubishi, joined the A37 from Holywell.

It is not yet clear what caused the accident, but police teams are continuing to investigate the crash.

Unexpected boost for Friends

BRIDPORT Hospital's League of Friends group has benefited from an unexpected donation, after a former committee member confronted her bank about post she had wrongly been sent for more than 20 years.

Janet Warburton, 82, contacted her local branch manager asking for compensation, having spent the last two decades picking up mail meant for somebody else.

Mrs Warburton, whose husband served as treasurer on the League of Friends committee in the early Nineties, continued to receive post for his successor even after he had passed on the role.

For 23 years the letters landed on Mrs Warburton's mat, and each time she passed them onto the group's current treasurer, Beryl Stork.

But having finally lost patience playing postman, and after dozens of phone calls to the bank's head office, Mrs Warburton contacted the local branch manager to ask for some degree of compensation.

And she was delighted to receive a helpful response from the bank, which offered her £200 for her troubles.

Mrs Warburton, who has herself served as the committee's secretary in the past, chose to donate the money straight to the League of Friends' coffers.

She presented a cheque, in memory of her late husband 'Max' Warburton, to long-serving treasurer Beryl Stork at St Mary's Church last week.

Mrs Warburton, who is also involved with fundraising for the church and the British Red Cross, said she loved being so involved in the community and was delighted to support the League of Friends with its latest fundraising efforts.

Established as a charity 55 years ago, the group has funded a range of projects and new equipment for Bridport Hospital.

A recent fundraising effort has covered the cost of refurbishing the waiting room and reception area in the hospital's X-Ray department.

The League says it is now looking to raise money towards a project to carry out similar refurbishment work in the ultrasound department early next year.

'Purple parade' to honour Rebecca

SYMONDSBURY Primary School is planning a fundraising event in memory of a former parent who lost her battle with cancer last year.

The school has arranged a memorial walk to pay its respects to Rebecca Harris, pictured, whose sons Rowan and Joseph are pupils at the school.

Organisers are aiming to create a 'purple parade' - Rebecca's favourite colour - along the coastal path, to honour her life and raise money for the Fortuneswell Cancer Trust, a cause close to her heart.

Friends and family are donning the colour and heading off for a challenging 10 to 15-mile cross country walk on Sunday, June 14th.

Proceeds from the walk will be split equally between the trust and an enrichment reading area for the school library. It is also planned to create a memorial bench in the school grounds for all to enjoy.

The walk starts in Charmouth, meeting at 11:30am on the beach side of the bridge, and setting off at 12noon and is open to everyone to enjoy the chance to walk together for a good cause.

There will also be an opportunity to join the walk halfway through at The Anchor Inn in Seaton, when the more challenging first half is completed.

The walk will finish at Symonds-bury Primary School where Manor Court Farms will be running a bar-becue next to The Ilchester Arms, which will stay open for the event.

As an added incentive, the family that raises the most money will be rewarded with a meal for two, including a bottle of wine, at the Olive Tree Restaurant in East Street.

For more information on the walk and to receive a sponsorship form, email rtmwalk@aol.co.uk

Town seeks new town crier following retirement

BRIDPORT Town Council is appealing to residents to take on the role of town crier. Following the retirement of the current town crier, Jane Silver-Corren, someone is needed to take over this historic position.

The town council is looking for someone with a strong voice and outgoing personality with an interest in maintaining the civic traditions of the town and is able to attend events and ideally represent the town at weekends. It is an honorary position and the town council will provide a uniform.

Ideally the candidate would be someone from the Bridport area who does not already cry for other towns.

Councillor Maggie Ray, outgoing town mayor, said: "The town crier is a very important position and carries on the long tradition of representing the town and helping to promote events in this historic way. I would like to thank Jane Silver-Corren for undertaking the role for so long and look forward to seeing people come forward to carry on the role."

"To start the recruitment process off, we would like any prospective criers to meet at Bucky Doo Square on Saturday June 6th at 10am for a short audition."

For more information and to apply for an audition, contact Linda Bullock on 01308 456722 or email l.bullock@bridport-tc.gov.uk

Thanks for your support

I WOULD like to extend my warmest thanks to those who re-elected me in the town and district council elections on May 7th, as well as to those who supported me in the General Election – especially those many people in Bridport who voted tactically in order to prevent a government committed to further cuts and decimation of our human rights.

Sadly it was not to be, and I fear for those who are disabled, in need of healthcare or housing or vulnerable in any other way and the impact on them of what is to come.

I would also like to thank the hundreds of well wishers who have texted or emailed me over the last week.

I don't know many of you personally but your warm sentiments and belief in the possibility of change for the future gives me hope.

I would like, finally, to thank all those who actively helped in my campaign – delivering leaflets, making films, organising meetings, making phone calls and raising the money.

I am honoured to have been chosen to represent the people of Bridport (and now Pymore and Bradpole, as well) again.

Please get in touch if you need my help.

ROS KAYES,
Town, District and County
Councillor, Bridport

I WOULD like to take this opportunity to thank the people of Bridport (North) for returning me as both district and town councillor.

Many thanks are also due to fellow Conservatives, and others, that had worked so hard to help myself and the other Conservative candidates fight the recent election.

You can participate by not only purchasing a duck if you have not yet done so and possibly earn yourself £250, but you can also watch the race on Sunday before enjoying a BBQ and music in the afternoon.

Indie folksters stop off in Bridport

■ SHOPPERS received a surprise on Saturday (May 16th) when indie folk band Stornoway visited Bridport for special performance. The Oxford-based group were on their way to a gig in Exeter when they stopped off in the town to entertain an intimate audience in Bridport Music.

Shop owner Steph Garner said: "One of the band member's parents lives in Broadwindsor, and he comes to the shop sometimes. He emailed us and asked if they could play a set before their gig in Exeter. We were chuffed to bits that they came and played as we are huge fans – my husband Piers and I saw them at Glastonbury a few years ago."

Stornoway played a short set, signed copies of their albums and chatted to fans, before heading off to their gig at the Royal Albert Memorial Museum in Exeter.

The band, named after the Scottish town on the Hebridean Isle of Lewis, are no strangers to the big stage, having performed at Glastonbury Festival, Radio 1's Big Weekend, and the Tate Modern in London.

Local band to stage fundraiser

A MUSICAL duo born and bred in West Dorset is hoping to do its bit for a local church, before heading off to play at the world's most famous music festival.

Local heroes Elijah and Eva Wolf, of The Gravity Drive, are to perform a fundraising gig at St Mary's Church in Netherbury, just a few days before one of their biggest shows of the summer, at Glastonbury Festival.

Ahead of the spectacular event in Somerset, the husband and wife team will be performing an acoustic set at the village church to raise vital funds for its upkeep.

The local landmark holds special significance for the couple who were both born in Netherbury and married at St Mary's years later.

Singer-songwriter Elijah said: "It's a beautiful building and holds a lot of meaning to us."

"Our album cover is a picture of us walking out of the church and it feels like we are going full circle to come back and play a set of our debut album in such a unique venue as this."

"I believe the earliest example of polyphonic music on manuscript was found in the church, so it holds a musical and personal history which is important to us both."

The band, whose first full-length record Testament has received airplay from the likes of Bob Harris on BBC Radio 2, is selling tickets for the one-off show in an effort to raise money to maintain the old church.

And the personal story behind the setting should provide the perfect tonic for The Gravity Drive's fundraising performance, which comes just a week before a trip to Glastonbury, where some of the music industry's biggest names will be sharing the stage.

The gig takes place on Tuesday June 16th and tickets, priced at £8, are on sale via the band's website www.thegravitydrive.com, with more available on the night.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening and the show is due to start at 7:30pm.

Fireman's helmet joins impressive collection

TOP DOGS | Coastguard teams sprung into action to rescue a stranded dog, after it slipped over the edge of the cliff near the Highlands End Holiday Park.

Rescue officers from the West Bay Coastguard team moved quickly to save the three-year-old Border Collie, which fell six metres over the side of the cliff on Saturday morning.

Crews were able to return the pet pooch to its grateful owners, after it slipped over the side before finding its feet on one of the upper cliff levels. A cliff technician was lowered down to pick up the dog, which had survived the fall without injury.

"With the help of some doggy treats, the border collie was coaxed into an animal rescue bag", said one of the rescue team.

"The cliff technician and the dog were then recovered back to the top of the cliff where the animal was reunited with her very happy owner".

West Bay Coastguard advises owners to keep dogs on leads while walking on the cliffs, and never to attempt a self-rescue.

A HISTORIC fireman's helmet has been donated to Bridport Museum and will be on show for all to see at Highlands End Holiday Park in Eype.

Burton Bradstock resident, 92-year-old Wilfred James Edwards, donated the 120-year-old helmet to Bridport Museum, as he wanted to see it stay in the town.

It belonged to his great-grandfather Frederick William Edwards during his time in the Bridport Fire Service in 1897 to 1898.

And Bridport Museum has loaned the helmet to Martin Cox at Highlands End Holiday Park, Eype, who houses what is believed to be the largest private collection of fire service memorabilia in the UK, and also holds the museum's Merryweather fire engine.

Wilfred James Edwards said: "My auntie Dorothy had it after it was passed down by my great-grandfather and always promised it to me.

"It was always hung up in my great grandfather's house in South Street and my auntie's house in Orchard Avenue.

"I didn't want it to leave Bridport and didn't want to sell it so I donated it to Bridport Museum and it is being held with Martin's collection.

"It is nice to have it where people can admire it and for it to be with a nice collection."

Judith Cabble, collections manager at Bridport Museum, believes this is the best place for it, to be fully appreciated by those who have a real interest in the fire service.

She said: "What is lovely is that not only has the helmet been reunited with the Merryweather fire engine, but also the family connection is really moving.

"It is really lovely it is up here and can be seen as the museum has so much that it wouldn't be on display all the time, but here it is seen by people with an interest in it.

"We are really grateful to Martin for housing the helmet and the Merryweather."

The helmet will be on show in the bar and restaurant at Highlands End Holiday Park along with the rest of Mr Cox's collection.

Martin Cox, managing director of West Dorset Leisure Holidays, said: "It is nice to have the helmet with the Merryweather fire engine where it belongs."

Big crowds in Burton Bradstock for Spring Tide

THOUSANDS of food lovers from across West Dorset descended on the beach at Burton Bradstock last weekend to enjoy the annual Spring Tide Food Festival.

Now in its sixth year, the two-day event celebrates the best in local produce, as well as the abundance of talented artists, photographers and craft connoisseurs.

Organised by The National Trust West Dorset, in partnership with Dorset Food and Drink and the Anonymous Travelling Market, the festival played host to some 60 exhibitors, including Fussells Fine Foods, Chocolate Arthouse, Chesil Smokery and Comins Tea House.

Among the Dorset produce on show and to taste were local meat, fresh fish, home-made cakes and treats, a selection of bread and cheeses and locally made wines, ciders and beers.

Caroline Richards, the Spring Tide Festival project manager, said: "It was great

by Lottie Welch

lottie@pemedial.co.uk

to see so many regular 'Spring Tiders' and to welcome new producers, crafts people, entertainers and artisans to the festival.

"There was a lovely relaxed atmosphere and a nice buzz as you walked into the marquee and around the festival site, so a big heads up to our producers and traders for making everything so welcoming, festive and eclectic.

"Spring Tide couldn't happen without the help of lots of people and we would like to give our particular thanks to our fantastic producers, to our brilliant team of staff and volunteers, supporters, artisans, performers and businesses.

"Also to the festival goers and community for getting involved and making the festival so much fun."

Wine and dine fundraiser for Nepal

■ Billy Bragg entertains diners at the Hive Beach Café

GENEROUS diners have raised more than £2,000 for the Nepal Earthquake Appeal at a wine and dine at the Hive Beach Café in Burton Bradstock and Watch House Café in West Bay.

The guests were invited to eat, drink and donate at the charity dining events on Friday May 8th and an incredible £2,933 was raised for the Disasters Emergency Committee.

And local musicians Billy Bragg and David Powell, a member of the Bride Valley Folk Band, entertained the customers throughout the night with Wynne Hughes, a regular Hive customer, even joining Mr Bragg on stage for a rendition of 'The White Cliffs of Dover' to mark the 70th anniversary of VE day.

Café owner Steve Attrill said: "We are overwhelmed by the support and generosity of our diners who donated to such a worthy cause and got a delicious meal too."

"All donations will go to the Disasters Emergency Committee to help provide shelter for the homeless and food, water and essential items to those who have lost everything."

"Our staff from the Hive and Watch House volunteered their time and our suppliers generously donated the food and drink that we served on the evening."

Diners enjoyed a fish and chip supper at the Hive Beach Café, while at the Watch House wood fired pizzas were on the menu.

Cliff Payne, the Hive's new café manager, said: "On behalf of us all at the Hive and Watch House a big thank you to everyone who came along and donated money to the earthquake appeal."

"It was very much appreciated and the funds raised for the Disasters Emergency Committee will help a lot of people."

The DEC has set up the Nepal Earthquake Appeal and are working to provide emergency shelter, food, clean water and blankets.

Once immediate, life-saving needs are met, members will work with individuals, families and communities to support them to rebuild their lives.

For more information about the appeal, visit www.dec.org.uk

Memorial unveiled to mark crucial part Dorset Regiment played in Battle of Kohima

A PERMANENT memorial to the courage of the men from the 2nd Dorsets, who lost 330 casualties during the Battle of Kohima, has been unveiled at County Hall in Dorchester.

The unveiling took place on the 71st anniversary of the climax of the battle – fought between April and June 1944 in the remote Naga Hills in India. It was a turning point in the Second World War, which halted the Japanese advance and turned defeat into victory. The Dorsets' part in that was crucial.

The Battle of Kohima may not be familiar to everyone, but the Kohima Epitaph – inscribed on the memorial at the site of the battle – is one regularly read at Remembrance events across the country – "When you go home, tell them of us and say, For your tomorrow, we gave our today."

At the service of commemoration the Exhortation was read by Major General Tony Jeapes, former Dorset, whose wife Jenny is the daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Geoffrey White, who was Second in Command of the Battalion at Kohima.

He said: "It was one of the major battles of the Second World War although many people don't know about it. While the war in Europe was being finished, this war was being continued, ferociously.

"This was a magnificent battle won largely by the grit of the Dorsets. Kohima was the furthest into the west that the Japanese ever got, after that it was withdrawal and defeat.

"It was the turning point of the war in the Far East and the Dorsets made it possible. Certainly it deserves to be remembered."

Mrs Jeapes said her father would have been absolutely delighted about the new stone in Dorchester.

"He was a military historian and had a lot to do with restarting the Keep Military Museum," she said.

"He ran it for a couple of years. It was important to him that military history was remembered.

"I hope Dorset people will visit the new Kohima Memorial stone as well as the Keep Military Museum."

A book about the Dorsets' story in WWII, including the role they played in the Battle of Kohima, is available from the Keep Military Museum. It is entitled "They Couldn't Have Done Better" by Christopher Jary.

■ REUNITED: Veterans of the 2nd Dorsets were among those attending

■ PAYING TRIBUTE: Dorchester Mayor Peter Mann lays a wreath watched by the county council chairman and Lord Lieutenant of Dorset. Below, the Lord Lieutenant takes the salute and members of the public gathered to pay their own tributes at the new memorial Melplash, who will be giving two of the presentations of a variety of different dishes.

Joining them will be Yoshinori Ishii, executive head chef at the Michelin starred Umu restaurant in London's Mayfair.

Neighbourhood Plan consultation events

LOCAL residents are being asked to share their ideas and have a stronger involvement in the development of the Neighbourhood Plan.

Members of the steering group for the Bridport, Allington, Bradpole Symondsburys and Bothenhampton and Walditch Neighbourhood Plan will be at various events to talk to residents on what they would like to see.

The local councils for this area are working together to allow their communities to develop a neighbourhood plan, which will give local people a say in how their area should develop.

And the group are holding consultation and information events throughout May and June to hear more from people across the Plan area on what they would like to see in the Plan and to volunteer for working groups, which have been set up to look at key issues.

Working groups include, housing, employment, transport, education, services and tourism amongst others.

The Neighbourhood Plan consultation roadshow will be at Bradpole Village Fete, Norman's Orchard, Middle Street, on Saturday May 30th from 2pm to 6pm and at Bridport Food Festival on Saturday June 13th from 9am to 4pm as part of the town council marquee.

Other dates and events are to be confirmed and for more information visit www.vision-2030.co.uk

For those who may be accompanying shooters, but who do themselves not wish to shoot, the tunnel has on offer observation rooms from which they can watch, while enjoying a tea or coffee from the centres on site cafe.

Enter your garden in Melplash competition

BUDDING gardeners are being encouraged to enter this year's Melplash Agricultural Society garden competition.

This annual event gives local gardeners within a 15-mile radius of the village of Melplash, a chance to get their hard work recognised and there are prizes for the best small, medium and large garden and also for the best allotment.

Last year, Beaminster residents Philip and Sue Crawford won the title of best large garden while Bridport couple Donna and Ian Winters were the winners of the best small garden.

Donna Winters said: "I love my garden and was persuaded last year to enter.

"I have never entered anything like this before and certainly didn't expect to win.

"My husband, Ian, and I were amazed and delighted to be informed that we were the winners of the small gardens.

"We are now very excited to be members of this year's judging team and are looking forward to seeing and enjoying other people's gardens.

"If you enjoy your garden, I would recommend entering."

The winners of each category will receive a cup which is presented at the Melplash Agricultural Show on Thursday August 27th.

Application forms are available to download from www.melplashshow.co.uk or can be picked up from the show office at 23 South Street, Bridport.

Entries close on Wednesday June 17th and judging takes place on June 23rd and 24th.

Can you help make history?

STAFF at Bridport Museum are looking for new volunteers to join their team.

Extra pairs of hands are needed to work morning or afternoon shifts to welcome visitors, run the gift shop and assist with general museum 'house-keeping'. They particularly need help on Saturdays.

"The museum is currently going through an exciting phase of re-development so it is a great opportunity to support the plans, to be involved as it progresses and to play an active role in the life of the museum", said curator Emily Hicks.

Lyme Bay Dentistry

CAN you imagine what it would be to live your life with no self-esteem because you've lost all your teeth and consequently the ability to eat properly?

We often see patients who struggle so much with a denture that when they bite into any food they rocked so much it causes ulcers on their gums every time they ate. Consequently they haven't eaten a proper meal for years.

Fortunately, help is at hand. Dr Phil Bennett, past president of the Association of Dental Implantology UK, the UK's first European Expert in Implantology to the UK's representative on the European Dental Committee has more than 3,000 implants cases, from a single missing tooth to full mouth reconstructions, his before and after treatment pictures are amazing.

Phil is based at Lyme Bay Dentistry where he set up practice over 12 years ago.

Rebuilding people's mouths is really about rebuilding their lives and Phil has the ability to give someone back their confidence and change the way they live their life for the better. His ability to change people's lives is no exaggeration.

This isn't to say that dental implants are 'must have' treatment for everyone who enquires, Phil is selective about patients who he offers a treatment plan to, but for those who are suitable candidates, more than 96 per cent of them will say yes to treatment and 100 per cent of them will testify to his work.

If you are considering implants, consider Dr Phil Bennett. Visit our website www.LymeBayDentistry.co.uk or give us a call 01297 442907

Not only do I now have a complete smile but importantly for me, I am able to enjoy foods which had become difficult to eat.

Smile! It's National Smile Month

NATIONAL Smile Month is the UK's largest annual oral health campaign. Organised by leading oral health charity, the British Dental Health Foundation, and running from 18 May to 18 June, you'll find these three key messages at the heart of the campaign:

- Brush your teeth for two minutes twice a day using a fluoride toothpaste.
- Cut down on how often you have sugary foods and drinks.
- Visit the dentist regularly, as often as they recommend.

The aim of National Smile Month is to ultimately improve the UK's oral health. The campaign hopes to raise awareness of important health issues, and make a positive difference to the oral health of millions of people throughout the United Kingdom.

With the help and enthusiasm of those who are passionate about health and wellbeing, National Smile Month 2015 will see hundreds of events and activities up and down the UK educate and engage local communities about the importance of a healthy mouth.

In 2015, the campaign will take place between May 18 and June 18, and will encourage all dental and health professionals, schools, pharmacies, community groups, colleges and workplaces – in fact anyone with an interest in good oral healthcare, to join in and help us educate, motivate and communicate positive oral health messages and improve the quality of smiles all around the UK.

But National Smile Month isn't just about education and stressing the importance of a healthy mouth – the key to the success of the campaign is that we have lots fun doing it!

Better oral health for all

THE British Dental Health Foundation is a UK charity dedicated to improving oral health. Established in 1971, we provide expert, independent and impartial advice on all aspects of oral health. We work closely with government, dental and health professionals, manufacturers, the dental trade, national and local agencies and the public to achieve our mission of improving the nation's oral health.

Campaigns

We lead campaigns which raise awareness on major health issues like mouth cancer. We co-ordinate campaigns like National Smile Month which encourage everyone to share messages of good oral health.

Education

We are a leading provider of educational information and resources to dental and health professionals. Our resources help to educate and motivate millions of people each year to improve their oral health.

Advice and Information

We provide expert, free and impartial advice to the public – online and via our confidential dental helpline. We use industry experts, qualified dentists and dental nurses to provide the most comprehensive source of independent dental information in the UK.

Product Accreditation

Our expert panel independently assesses hundreds of dental products to help consumers make an informed choice. Our accreditation symbol appears worldwide in over 50 countries.

Influence

We contribute to UK dental policy development. Our independence ensures we are an important voice in the media and with decision-makers.

What we have achieved

The formation of the British Dental Health Foundation has coincided with major improvements in the nation's oral health. Our work to promote, inform and educate has made a significant contribution to the way millions of people now care for the teeth and think about the health of their smile.

Project inspired by town's rope and net heritage now on show

A LOCAL artist's project in collaboration with Bridport Museum and the community is now completed and on show.

Nancy Clemance has spent several months researching Bridport Museum's rope and net archive and travelling around Bridport in her Knot Booth collecting knots from the public.

lecting knots from the public.

And as part of the New Expressions 3 programme - which establishes a national approach to collaboration between contemporary artists and museums - she has created a piece of artwork inspired by this collection, which is now on display in Bridport museum.

Nancy Clemance said: "Thank you so much to all those who supported the Knot Booth over the past few months, with their support I managed to collect over 300 knots during sessions at Bridport Museum, Bridport Library, Amsafe, Bucky Doo Square and The Hive Café at Burton Bradstock.

"Donations came from Bridport's policemen, teenagers, grandparents and their grandchildren, retired indentured net makers, net industry employees, and visitors who were very interested in Bridport's heritage and current industry.

"I have worked all donated knots, and the signatures of those donors who chose to leave their details, into a piece of work that is called 'The Working End'.

"The Working End exhibition includes the Knot Booth, a 12 minute film, text by Lizzie Lloyd and paintings by Tara Harland Viney."

Mrs Clemance is now asking everyone who made and donated a knot at the Knot Booth to come to Bridport Museum on Monday May 25th to complete a survey and enjoy a piece of cake.

Or alternatively, those who cannot make it can email their details to curator@bridportmuseum.co.uk to be sent a survey.

The exhibition is open upstairs at Bridport Museum until September 26th.

Local author launches new history book for anniversary of VE Day

A DORSET author has launched his new book to coincide with the 70th anniversary of VE Day, writes Lottie Welch.

Stephen R A'Barrow was signing copies of Death of a Nation: A New History of Germany on Saturday, May 9th, in the Bridport branch of Waterstones.

The book documents the history of Germany from 105 BC to the present day, opening with the battles of the Roman Empire in the first century, providing an accurate account of German and European history.

Mr A'Barrow said: "A lot of history that is written is what I like to call warm glow history, which makes readers feel good about being part of a national country and my book inspires people's emotions and makes them think differently.

"I have covered 2,000 years of history and I find it frustrating as of course we should celebrate Britain and the commonwealth countries but we need to remember what happened in Eastern Europe and how the killings didn't stop on May 8th."

Mr A'Barrow spent his early years in the German spa town of Homburg before the family moved to England when he was six-years-old.

His passion for Germany and its history drove him to further his studies at the University of Berlin and to travel extensively throughout Eastern Europe.

He added: "My dad was in the RAF in Germany and married my mum who grew up in the ruins of Frankfurt.

"My father was a great inspiration to me as he was very interested in the history and would talk a lot about it.

"My grandparents remember Germany pre Nazi and will talk more freely about it - they hold an interesting, broader perspective.

"But it doesn't matter what you write as there has to be a personal interest to you."

Death of a Nation: A New History of Germany is available from Waterstones and costs £18.50.

SUPERB WEEKEND OF MUSIC AT CUSTOMS HOUSE

Go tell Alice, Elijah Wolf and more on the line-up

THE Customs House has already made a name for itself as a unique new live music venue in the heart of West Bay.

This 200 year old building now plays host to an eclectic mix of musicians including top local performers such as The Andy Grant Trio, Elijah Wolf and Ben Taylor. Events Manager Fiona Hunt has also created an Open Mic Café during the half term holiday to give musicians a space to perform and this also offers a platform for local youngsters to showcase their talent in front of an audience for the first time.

Visitors to The Customs House regularly comment that they are delighted by the unique experience and bohemian atmosphere that this historic former bonded warehouse offers. Open all year round, seven days a week, shoppers will find three floors of vintage wares, gifts, crafts and a vibrant courtyard with a street market ambience and gourmet food stalls.

The Customs House, West Bay is set to become a must see attraction on the Dorset coast. For more information visit The Customs House West Bay Facebook page or contact Fiona Hunt: communityinvolve@gmail.com for events.

TONY ROBERTS QUARTET TO PLAY JAZZ WEEKEND

LYME Regis Jazz & Blues Weekend has added the Tony Roberts Quartet to the weekend's playlist on Saturday evening (May 30th) at the Mariners Hotel, in the garden overlooking Lyme Bay.

Tony Roberts has played with some of the all-time greats - John Dankworth, John McLaughlin, John Renbourn, Alexis Korner and Danny Thompson - as well as enjoyed a successful career as a much sought-after London session musician. He now lives in Bridport, West Dorset, where he often collaborates and plays with his singer-songwriter daughter, Rachael.

Tony will team up with talented guitarist, Richard Llewelyn, bassist Ben Taylor, and Marc Juan on percussion for a decidedly Latin musical vibe.

The Mariners team will also be hosting its special Creole BBQ during the evening bringing the sweet spicy taste of Louisiana to the evening.

Julie Sheppard, the festival's organiser said: "We've been extraordinarily lucky to secure someone of the stature of Tony Roberts and his fellow musicians for this extra gig on Saturday evening. This is an absolute must for jazz lovers".

Tony Roberts Quartet, Saturday, May 30th, doors open: 6.30pm, Mariners Hotel, Silver Street (garden), £6. Tickets from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre: 01297 442138

Welcome to the newly refurbished ANCHOR INN at Seatown

THE Anchor Inn at Seatown, near Bridport, is a destination pub that prides itself on great food using very local, quality produce. With daily specials, seasonal menu changes, and one of the best views available anywhere, The Anchor Inn showcases the best of West Dorset.

The Anchor is owned by Palmers Brewery but is a family run business with Paul and Kate Wiscombe having been at the helm since 2003. The pub has recently undergone a £1.3 million investment and the changes are quite simply breath taking. Having re-opened in May 2014, the refurbishment has included a brand new modern kitchen, three stunning boutique B&B rooms, new toilets, and a sympathetic facelift all round. Both locals and visitors alike have been wowed by the new look Anchor Inn.

To complement the new look pub and restaurant The Anchor are very excited to announce the appointment of a well renowned new head chef who will be starting in late summer this year! Jean-Paul DeRonne has made a name for himself in the local area, having previously been head chef for BBC MasterChef winner Mat Follas at his Beaminster restaurant the Wild Garlic, and also at his Chesil Beach Café. Most recently he has been an integral part of the team at The Lord Poulett Arms, winner of the National Dining Pub of the Year in the Good Pub Guide.

Jean-Paul will bring with him an exciting new menu, using the very best of local ingredients. Jean-Paul is used to foraging for ingredients, so is excited about working in place with so much foraging potential on its doorstep.

The current menu also makes the most of the location and it's local ingredients. It's mainly focused on seafood with fresh fish from the local fisherman that live in the village. One fisherman in the village has a boat in West Bay and provides fish such as Skate and Plaice, and another fisherman launches his boat from Seatown beach, quite literally on the doorstep of the Anchor Inn, and catches Lobster and Crab for the pub.

The clubhouse is available to all non members, pop in and join us for lunch, or book us for your special function. All celebrations can be catered for including birthday parties and weddings!

Discover Happiness at Bridport Arts Centre

WHAT is happiness and how do you get it? Fast, fun, thoughtful and physical 'The Happiness' is a brand new dance theatre work that sweeps its audience into a provocative and entertaining adventure.

Brought to Bridport by a cutting-edge dance company run by choreographer and performer Karla Shacklock. The show uses the company's trademark combination of breakneck choreography, spoken word, live sound and ever-transforming images.

The Happiness is an emotional and colourful explosion of joy, grief and confusion. The performers decide the structure of the work live in the moment of performance - meaning that each performance is completely unique. According to Lisa Lort of Bath Dance "you'll go home with smiley ache!"

Combining first person stories, case studies from across the globe and referencing a whole host of philosophers and self-proclaimed happiness gurus, the work throws happiness up for all to question, see, experience and, ultimately, feel.

Weymouth Operatic to perform Evita

WEYMOUTH Operatic Society is raising the bar again this year with its production of EVITA. Building on the success of its highly acclaimed production of Jesus Christ Superstar at Weymouth Pavilion Theatre last May, WOS are lifting this production to their new level of professionalism.

Last year's production of Jesus Christ Superstar brought audiences to their feet and WOS Chairman, Stella Brading says "We anticipate a similar response and are looking forward to an exciting production of EVITA. Our professionalism and approach to the production make for a great experience for everyone in the audience and I hope that we will see a few 'full house' signs up during the week!"

Winner of seven Tony Awards, EVITA brings to life the dynamic, larger-than-life persona of Eva Perón, wife of former Argentine dictator, Juan Perón. Blessed with charisma, Eva Perón captivated a nation by championing the working class. This exuberant production creates a gripping theatrical experience and features Andrew Lloyd Webber's compelling Latin, pop and jazz influenced score. One of the most popular collaborations between Webber and Tim Rice, this legendary musical features the memorable song "Don't Cry for Me, Argentina."

To build on the success of last year, WOS has Martine Burt returning as Director and Sam Ryall as Musical Director, and under their professional guidance, the production will transform the fantastic Pavilion stage into an arena where the audience can examine the consequences of choice.

EVITA will be performed at The Pavilion Theatre, Weymouth between Wednesday, May 27th and Saturday, May 30th with performances starting at 7.30pm and also a Saturday Matinee performance at 2.30pm.

Tickets are £15 except for Saturday Matinee at only £12. Please ring the Box Office on 01305 783225 and early bookings are advisable.

Bristol Old Vic Theatre Production of The Beaux' Stratagem at Bridport Arts Centre

COME and discover the stars of tomorrow when Bristol Old Vic Theatre School bring one of the finest Restoration comedies, 'The Beaux' Stratagem' to Bridport Arts Centre.

Described by Bristol Old Vic as an 18th Century equivalent of One Man Two Governments, The Beaux' Stratagem has entertained and amused generations with its fast moving and breathtaking comedy involving rakes, lovers, desperate housewives, herbal healers and horse thieves!

The play sees Archer and Aimwell, two young gentlemen who have fallen on hard times, planning to travel through small towns in order to entrap young heiresses steal their money and move on.

But the two beaux aren't the only ones with larcenous designs – nor do they realise that their own hearts might be susceptible to ensnarement.

Jill Beed, Box Office Manager "Bristol Old Vic are firm favourites here at the Arts Centre. We're looking forward to an entertaining night of satire and silliness from some of the best up and coming actors in the country".

The Beaux' Stratagem comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Tuesday, May 26th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12/£11 Members/£10 Concessions from www.bridport-arts.com 01308 424204

Summer is coming - it's time to go swimming!

"YOU PROBABLY know that at Bridport Leisure Centre we run the Bridport Big-fish Swimming School to help our youngsters develop their swimming and personal survival skills" says Virginia Stewart, Sports and Activities Manager at Bridport Leisure Centre, "but we also take great pride in offering a range of lessons to suit adults of all abilities."

"Join our instructors (who are all fully qualified to ASA level 2 standard), in small groups of 10 or less swimmers, where for 30 minutes each week we will help you to develop into the confident swimmer you want to be – whether that's swimming a width, diving in or learning to breath whilst swimming front crawl. We have carefully developed the courses to progress at your pace and can offer lots of different aids to get you going and help you to improve."

"Of course the pool is a fantastic place to exercise as it supports 90% of your body weight so is very good for all those aches and pains. Less well known is that swimming reduces tension in your body and gently supports you whilst improving your posture, balance and flexibility and therefore your sense of well being. Swimming can do all this for you whilst burning 200 calories during 30 minutes gentle swimming."

"Our Beginners course, on Thursday morning at 10.30am, is just what it says for beginners - you may never have had swimming lessons and be a bit nervous in the water, so we work in the shallow end of the pool and aim to build up your confidence as we gently work at your pace.

"The Improvers course follows on from the beginners at 11am Thursday mornings and helps you to gain the skills and confidence needed to progress to swimming lengths in lanes."

Both the Beginners and Improvers classes run continuously throughout the year and cost just £19.50 per month. If you would like to discuss your goals or are looking for specialist one to one tuition please don't hesitate to ring call Virginia on 01308 426905 or if you are ready to get going you can book your place please by ringing reception on 01308 427464.

A Strange Wild Song

RHUM AND CLAY present a national tour of A Strange Wild Song – acclaimed theatre inspired by a pioneering Belgium photographer.

Rhum and Clay are proud to present their 2012 hit, A Strange Wild Song, on tour nationally throughout Spring 2015. Building on the success of their sell out run at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2012, and two small tours in 2013, this critically acclaimed ensemble will once again enchant audiences around the country with their unforgettable tale about finding light in the darkest of places.

They will be coming to Dorset in early June and perform at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Thursday, June 4th, Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, June 5th and the Marine Theatre Lyme Regis on Saturday, June 6th.

A Strange Wild Song takes the audience to northern France during the Second World War, where three children encounter a lost American soldier. Decades later, the soldier's camera is unearthed and the photographs inside reveal an incredible story of childhood and imagination.

Accompanied by an original award-winning musical score the production fuses cinematic imagery, absurdist humour, and physical theatre to tell an epic story that is thought-provoking yet entertaining.

The idea for the show came from a series of photographs by Belgium photographer Leon Gimple. Rhum and Clay co-founders Christopher Harrison and Julian Spooner explain what first attracted them to the images, 'Firstly they are beautiful; Leon Gimple was the first photographer to have colour photographs in print, they often looked like paintings. His series entitled The Grenata Street Army struck a chord with our company. He had photographed a series of children playing in the midst of a war and we were drawn to the innocence and beauty of these images. They were both beautiful and horrific - young children acting out scenes of war. The contrast was ripe for theatre.'

A Strange Wild Song takes direct stimulus from these photographs as all members of the cast play children. The actors found this was the major challenge in creating this piece. 'We spent a lot of time experimenting with different ways of portraying children. The breakthrough came when we actually started to play without worries. In nearly every situation what distinguishes children from adults is their willingness to play, regardless of their situation. Whether it is in a war zone or a public pool, children will play. Once we understood this, we adopted this philosophy in everything we did as children and the rest just followed very naturally.'

Rhum and Clay is a theatre ensemble that tells stories: original shows that are inventive, ramshackle and cinematic. They formed the company at l'Ecole Jacques Lecoq in Paris in 2010, where they learnt their craft. They would also spend long hours into the night drinking 'rum' and making masks out of clay. It was these happy memories that inspired the name under which the company perform.

A Strange Wild Song will be performed at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Thursday, June 4th 01305 266 926 www.dorchesterarts.org.uk, followed by Bridport Arts Centre on June 5th 7.30pm 01308 424204 www.bridport-arts.com, and Marine Theatre Lyme Regis on Saturday, June 6th at 7.30pm 01297 442138 www.marinetheatre.com.

SYMONDS & SAMPSON LANDLORDS WORKSHOP

30TH MAY 2015 10 AM TO 1PM AT OUR POUNDBURY OFFICE

SYMONDS & Sampson's letting departments have seen property levels decreasing and the number of tenants seeking homes increasing. Demand is outstripping supply with more than one tenant applying for each property.

There has been a small increase of buy-to-let investors but more need to enter the market to satisfy tenant demand. Rising rents and improved mortgage deals are there to tempt investors into the market so Rachael James, Partner and Head of Symonds & Sampson's Letting Department has arranged a Landlords Workshop at the Poundbury Office in Queen Mother Square.

Trudi Gumbrell and Emma Knight from the lettings department will be on hand to discuss the new legislation and case law and how existing landlords are affected together with advice on market rental values. Symonds and Sampson manage more than 850 properties and are members of ARLA. We offer a wide range of services and offer our clients an individual package to suit most Landlords.

Peter Grout-Smith, Residential Manager of the Poundbury office will be very pleased to talk to any investment buyers about our new home sites in Poundbury and also Chickerell. CG Fry and Son have a range of three and four bedroom homes in the heart of Poundbury. Whilst MJC builders are offering one bedroom apartments, and two and three bedroom houses situated in a well-placed part of Chickerell.

If you would like to attend the Landlord's Workshop, please email: tgumbrell@symondsandsampson.co.uk. We will also be happy for you to drop in informally between 10 am and 1 pm.

In the meantime here are some tips on what to consider when investing in a buy to let property.

Do your sums – Seek advice from our lettings department on the monthly rental against the cost of your monthly mortgage repayments. Don't forget to take into account voids where the property sits empty for a month or two.

Research the market – Choose an area where there are good facilities such as local shops, pubs, schools and public transport.

Tenants – Do not imagine yourself living in the property but put yourself in the shoes of your target tenant. Who are they and what do they want? Young professionals – modern and stylish. Families – They have their own belongings, so a blank canvass is essential.

Know the Legislation – It is essential that Landlords know their obligations under the law. A Landlord is classed as a commercial business under Health and Safety Rules and must be aware of responsibilities for such things as gas safety certificates and safe electrics.

Consider how hands-on you want to be – Buying a property is only the first step. Will you rent it out yourself or use an agent to do so?

Are you Happy with your existing Agent?

We look forward to seeing you on 30th May 2015 between 10 am and 1 pm.

Dynamism of a Coupé with the toughness of an SUV

▲ New Honda HR-V

ALL new HR-V combines dynamism of a Coupé with the toughness of an SUV. Project Leader Masaki Kobayashi gives an insight into the creation of a unique Crossover.

'We didn't want to just create a downsized SUV,' he explains. 'Honda already has the CR-V, which combines the virtues of an SUV and a lighter, more nimble conventional car, so the HR-V needed to offer something different. The development team set a goal to create a new value or theme from the very start of the project.'

That new theme was to combine the elegance and fluidity of a Coupé with the utility and strength of an SUV. 'Combining high eye-point and toughness - core values of SUV - with a new level of emotion was the key,'

Kobayashi says. 'So we came up with an exterior concept encapsulated by "Emotionality and Toughness" and an interior concept called "Personal Cockpit and Expansiveness". We wanted to fuse apparently conflicting values to create something fresh.'

This approach was tailored around a dynamic and demanding buyer profile. Kobayashi and his team targeted 'active people who enjoy both their work and home life. These people have a high sense of the balance between fashion and practicality. Achieving that balance in the HR-V was a challenge. 'It was very difficult to create the desired interior space, ease of use and sheer capaciousness hand-in-hand with dynamic and emotional design,' Kobayashi begins.

'However, the process is relatively simple: Package designers take charge of determining the space and layout of the vehicle and set hard points. From there the exterior and interior designers take over to bring the concept to life within those hard points.'

If the theory is simple the intense period of melding a dynamic but versatile interior with an aerodynamically efficient, exciting and innately tough profile is hugely demanding. 'Of course it's not so straightforward in reality!' Kobayashi says with a smile. 'The designers and engineers discuss everything on a millimetre level... You might even call them arguments! But by having these open discussions the project can really take shape.'

Once this conceptual phase is complete the job of modelling the HR-V begins. 'We spent the longest time on this process,' says Kobayashi. 'Designing, modeling and then repeating the verification using full-scale models to get a real sense of how the HR-V would look out on the road. This is where the design starts to come to life and we can experiment with shapes and forms that still let the interior space breathe but also create a tension and fluidity in the design.'

The cohesiveness of the HR-V design is a testament to that intense and highly-detailed process and something of which Kobayashi is proud. 'Fusion of a cabin shape with good aerodynamics and a strong lower body became the basis of HR-V's dynamic form,' he begins, 'and what's satisfying is that we were able to create a product with no compromise in terms of size, function and design. That means an interior packed with functionality but also a sense of personal space and fun. 'The driving position is very much like a Coupé and engenders a sense of agility and dynamism, yet because the architecture features a central fuel tank layout and elements like the Magic Seats the HR-V offers masses of space for passengers and great flexibility. This combination gave the design team a great deal of satisfaction.'

'For the exterior we are very pleased with its dynamic shape, the high quality of the surfaces and the intricate but seamless detailing,' says Kobayashi. 'I can say that when the whole team first saw the prototype vehicle together, we felt proud and special that we were able to realise our targets with this new car. I believe that the HR-V possesses the elegance to look attractive in any scene and yet a sense of toughness at the same time. And my determination to make it look like a real 'driver's car' was achieved.'

The all-new HR-V is a product borne of the determination to offer something fresh and innovative but with the real lives of real people and families at its core. Honda offers a unique environment in which to create new products. 'Honda is a place where we use our will to create new values without being bound by the past,' explains Kobayashi. 'That is our driving force. From a creator's perspective it is an interesting and stimulating environment. That sense of moving forward and also listening to the users who live with our products around the world is very exciting.'

Audi TT Secures Best Sportscar Accolade

Sports car desirability and agility with far fewer visits to the filling station – this is the genuinely winning formula which has just secured the frugal Audi TT TDI ultra the 'Best Sportscar' accolade in the 2015 DieselCar Magazine Awards.

"Despite evolving over the years, the shape of the Audi TT remains as one of the most instantly recognisable cars on the road, as well as being highly desirable," explains DieselCar Magazine Editor and Publisher, Ian Robertson.

In the ultra version of the acclaimed aluminium and steel composite-bodied Coupé the impressive 184PS output from the 2.0-litre TDI engine is bolstered by peak torque of 380Nm available between 1,750 – 3,250rpm, accounting for impressive in-gear performance which is closely matched to its TFSI counterparts. Acceleration to 62mph is dealt with in 7.1 seconds on the way to a maximum speed of 149mph. The potential for over 62mpg is also combined with the added benefit of a BIK threshold of just 21 per cent – the lowest in the TT model range – and a VED rating in band C (free for the first year and only £30 thereafter).

The centrepiece of the cutting-edge TT interior is the Audi Virtual Cockpit, a 12.3-inch TFT screen which uses the latest NVidia Tegra 30 graphics processor to display crystal clear media graphics and infotainment menus in full-screen when required. The Virtual Cockpit is fitted as standard to all models, and crystal-clear navigation mapping can be optionally specified as part of the Technology Package, which also equips the system with a multitude of Audi Connect 4G Internet services.

Commenting on the award, Audi TT and A3 Product Manager Julie Salsbury said: "The new TT is now more focused than ever before, drawing on the huge success of its iconic predecessors and incorporating up-to-the-minute technology. Our jewel in our crown – the new TDI ultra model – encapsulates this sportscar DNA with the added advantage of remarkable efficiency, and it's tremendously encouraging to have these attributes recognised by the go-to publication on diesel cars." Pricing starts from £29,810 OTR for the TT Coupé 2.0 TDI ultra Sport, rising to £31,995 OTR for the all-new Roadster version, and both are available to order in UK Centres now.

Brake Backs Police Federation Plea For Lower Drink Drive Limit

BRAKE backs Police Federation plea for lower drink drive limit and calls for greater priority for life-saving roads policing.

Brake, the road safety charity, has given its strong backing to calls made today (19 May 2015) by the Police Federation – the staff association for all police constables, sergeants and inspectors in England and Wales – for a lower drink drive limit, following evidence from Scotland that the lower limit introduced there last year has led to a marked reduction in drink driving rates.

The call is being made at the Police Federation's annual conference, being held in Bournemouth this week. The Police Federation is also highlighting what it calls the "unprecedented cuts" suffered by roads policing units in the last five years, leaving them unable to properly enforce life-saving road safety laws [2].

Julie Townsend, deputy chief executive, Brake, the road safety charity, said: "Brake agrees with the Police Federation that the UK drink drive limit – one of the highest in Europe – needs to be lowered. We would like to see an effective zero-tolerance limit of 20mg alcohol per 100ml blood. This would make it clear that even small amounts of alcohol affect your ability to drive safely, and end the widespread confusion over whether it's safe and acceptable to have one or two drinks and drive. Research is clear that even very small amounts of alcohol impair, hence it should always be 'none for the road' – not a drop.

"Brake also echoes the Police Federation's concern over the severe cuts that have been made to roads policing in recent years, which have been disproportionately heavier than cuts to other areas of policing. Given that enhanced traffic policing offers a huge return on investment and a way to avert needless casualties and suffering, this makes no rational, moral or economic sense. Brake urges the government to make traffic policing a national priority and give officers the backing and resources they need to do their job."

Brake campaigns for a zero-tolerance drink drive limit through its not a drop, not a drag campaign, and for prioritised police traffic enforcement through its crackdown campaign. Tweet us @Brakecharity, #notadrop, #crackdown.

Lyme Bowls

Varying fortunes

THERE were varying degrees of success and failure in the four leagues this week. Lyme 1 are making steady progress with an 8-2 win away at Dorchester.

Lyme 2 on the other hand were well beaten at home by Sherborne, failing to secure a single point.

Lyme 3 picked up two points in the South Dorset League whilst the ladies were unfortunate to come away with just four points from their away game at Blandford, winning as they did on two of the three rinks.

In the friendlies, Lyme only managed one win from three games. A particularly hard game against West Sussex tourists saw Lyme lose on five rinks and draw the sixth.

We could do with more of our first team members turning out for these touring side games in order to give them the opposition they deserve.

Razor sharp Thorne

By Geoff Pickett

HAVING defeated the challenge of single-seater racer Mike Lee to take victory in April, on the second day of the Woolbridge Motor Club double header, Rod Thorne was dominant again two weeks later at the 500 Owners Association event.

As previously the Pilbeam MP43 sports racer driver's nearest challenger was Lee in his Suzuki Hayabusa powered OMS 2000M.

But with the torque of the mighty five litre Rover V8 in the Pilbeam there was no stopping the Frampton garage proprietor who paced himself through the wet and slippery morning practice runs and then produced two neat and rapid timed runs in the afternoon to lead the battle for the Harry Foster Memorial Trophy.

The first competitive runs saw Thorne take the lead by 0.49 second with a climb of 40.60 seconds which he improved on at the second time of asking with the only sub 40-second climb of the day, a 39.95.

In doing so the winning margin was increased to 0.98 of a second but the OMS pilot was very much aware that he had to not only race Rod Thorne but also Hayley Thorne as she claimed second in class behind Lee and the OMS.

The meeting catered for both cars and motorcycle with the later utilising the two timed runs as qualifiers for the Top Ten Run-Off for the National Hill Climb Associations Championship.

Aprilia SXV rider Keith Haines from Weymouth was in good form during the class runs to take his 549cc machine to third in the 501cc – 750cc class with a time of 45.78 seconds and as a result qualified for the run-offs.

There is nothing like a championship run-off to pump the adrenalin and sharpen the reactions and Haines focused on achieving a smooth and error free climb.

This he achieved to improve his time by 0.58 of a second to take a handsome haul of points with fifth fastest time.

Men still seeking elusive Dorset championship victory

BRIDPORT Mens Dorset Championship team are still winless after suffering their third successive defeat this season when they went down 40-57 to Wellworthy, winning just one rink and gaining two points.

That was Bob Taylor; Keith Brooks; Paul Tibble; Craig Boshier who scored one on the last end to win 15-14. Brian Rumble; Barry Shortland; Brian Conisbee; Brian Iverson went down 12-14, and there was disappointment for Chris Thorne; Bill Payne; John Carter; Dave Roberts who went down 13-25 after failing to score on the last 10 ends.

They had previously lost their rearranged match with Poole Park 51-57 despite winning two rinks.

Rumble; Payne; Conisbee; Boshier winning 19-14, and Thorne; Shortland; Tom Tocher; Roberts 20-17, but Taylor; Brooks; Carter; Jones lost 12-26.

The A team made up for the disappointment by trouncing Wellworthy A 84-26 to record their first win of the campaign in Division One.

Clive Langdon; Mike Smith; David Eastman; Chris Taylor won 31-4; Peter Scott; Mel Griffiths; Bob Seadon; Ben Jones 35-14, and Derek Hoskins; Ken Sanger; Derek Crocker; John Block 18-8.

The B team lost 39-58 at Portland Victoria in their first Division Two game of the season.

Allen Bird; Arthur Stone; Norman Ludders; Neil Kennedy 18-15; John Ireland; D Hocking; A Hutchinson 10-24; Alan Cowdrey; G Strange; Roger Herbert; B Parker 11-17.

The ladies won on two rinks against Wimborne in their DL Division One match but lost overall 61 – 69 in gaining four points.

Margaret Clapp; Sheila Jones; Alison Tibble; Frances Hewett won 27-18; Rosemary Brooks; Melodie Watts; Marion Carter; Pamela Daters also won by 22 -21, but Pat Cornick; Barbara Iverson; Gill Hunt; Laura Taylor lost 12-30.

In Division Two the Ladies second team found it difficult playing away to leaders Sherborne losing all three rinks.

Delphine Street; Janet Bird; Marion Tocher; Joan Griffiths 12-20; Thelma Pratt; Pauline Newitt; Mary Corfield; Diana S Butler 12-20; Christine Cowdrey; Mary Eastman; Chris Robbins; Jean Seadon 10-32.

With two winning rinks the Men's A team secured a good overall win 54-40 over Dorchester B in the South Dorset League.

Rumble; Conisbee; Fred Pomeroy;

Bosher 25-7; Tocher; Brooks; Tibble; Jones 19-12; Shortland; Iverson; Carter; Roberts 10-21.

However the B team didn't fare so well against Dorchester A losing on all three rinks 39-66 overall.

Hoskins; Sanger; B Bartlett; Roy Liddington 13-21; P Scott; Griffiths; Seadon; Block 9-20; Langdon; Smith; Easton; C. Taylor. 17-25.

In triples friendly Bridport again won two rinks but lost Queen Camel overall 61-65. Top triple T Tocher; S Jones; A Skelton.

The ladies won the 1st round of the Top Club despite losing the singles they won the three other disciplines.

Lyme Regis Sailing

Tylers' Fireball is best overall

THE biggest turnout of the season so far, saw 28 dinghies on the start line for the first of a series of three back-to-back races on Sunday.

In a light south westerly, and bright sunshine, Jerry Rook in his Albacore and DIs sailed by Nick Oman and Simon Heusen got the best start on a slightly port biased line.

However, it was Allan & Chris Tyler in their new French Fireball who rounded the windward mark first and set off on a three sail reach, closely followed by Simon Clark in his RS 700 and the Merlin sailed by Dominic Bowns.

Line honours finally went to Clark, but provisional results show the Fireball won on handicap with Oman second and the Merlin third.

The second race followed a similar pattern, though the RS 800 sailed by Cameron & Darrol Moss overtook the Fireball when Chris Tyler missed the clip onto her trapeze and rolled backwards out of the boat which resulted in a capsized!

The slower boats had close tactical racing and performed well on handicap; the fleet dividing up the beat to either take advantage of the tide or the wind bend off the cliffs.

The third race started in slightly more wind, with a perfectly set course giving perfect reaching angles for the boats carrying spinners.

After the three races the Tylers, with a first and two seconds, won the day overall in their new Fireball, Bowns in the Merlin was second and Colin Walters in his Albacore came third; these results are provisional as some handicaps have to be adjusted.

Several sailors have changed classes for the season as performance boats are always being developed and competition is keen.

On the slipway after racing finished, top sailor and boat builder Jon Turner arrived with his latest Merlin which he hopes will prove a winner.

It created quite a stir as he rigged and put to sea in "Phantom" for a first trial.

The club is hosting an open meeting for Merlins in two week's time when Turner and Richard will be closely watched.

A view from Third Man - The Dorset cricket scene

Beaminster 2nds taste victory at last

WITH STUART BROOM

BEAMINSTER 2nds are celebrating their first win in almost two years after beating Parley 5ths on Saturday where Dean Hyett was the hero, carrying his bat for an undefeated 145 not out.

It was July 13th 2013, 24 games ago, that they last tasted victory when they beat Bere Regis 2nds.

In the big derby of the day Dorchester beat Weymouth by four wickets at the Rec.

With both sides having lost their opening two matches something had to give, and despite a half century from Michael Irgang, Dorchester won with nine overs left.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division

DORCHESTER 159-7 BEAT

WEYMOUTH 156-7 BY 4 WICKETS

DORCHESTER had a reasonably comfortable win over Weymouth in the first derby game of the season.

Set 157 to win, they passed the total with four wickets to spare to record their first win of the season, and leave Weymouth winless.

Dorchester invited Weymouth to bat first and it appeared that Aussie Michael Irgang, who started the season with a first ball duck, looked in good form as he and Jim Ryall confidently moved the Seasiders to 77-1 despite a tight opening spell from opening bowlers Dan Belt (1-24) and James Dunham (1-29).

However, after Irgang (53) had passed his half century with a boundary, Simon Mitchem bowled him and then had Simon Browne caught behind for a duck to leave them 79-3.

Weymouth skipper Kieron Womble (24) joined Ryall and they looked to have put his side back in contention before the latter was caught at long on off Shaun Little (2-38).

Good bowling started to strangle Weymouth's progress after this with only Neil Walton (19) and Alex Mortimore (13) really contributing as their innings finished on a disappointing 156-7.

MARTINSTOWN 169 LOST TO

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 214 BY 45 RUNS
MARTINSTOWN captain Ed Nichols was a little disappointed that his side lost having dismissed Wimborne & Colehill for 214.

Winning the toss, the visitors batted on a good surface, but a lively opening spell from Chris Read (2-33) and Matt Camp (3-27), and excellent spell of spin from Liam Banfield saw the visitors struggling on 139-5.

However, a half century from James Williams saw Wimborne reach 214 all out.

Martinstown lost Lee House (9) early on, Steve Gerity (17) on his debut added 50 for the second wicket with Nichols (33), but their dismissals saw the hosts slump to 92-5.

A hard-hitting 45 from Ross Stewart gave Martinstown hope but once he went and despite 23 from Tom Nicholls and 13 from Matt Camp the innings fell away to leave them 46 short of victory.

Nichols said: "We bowled well early on and they never really got away until Williams appeared. He found the boundary fairly regularly, but we were happy with 214 as that generally is a below par score at Ashton."

"We started positively and Steve Gerrity batted very well on his debut, but when they turned to spin four of us got out to short balls - you can't lose wickets like that. If Ross Stewart could have stayed, I think we could have got there."

County Division Two

BOURNEMOUTH 3RD 178-1 LOST TO
CATTISTOCK 339-8 BY 161 RUNS

CATTISTOCK cantered to their first win of the season on a flat pitch at Chapel Gate where they were helped by some wayward bowling and poor fielding: the hosts racking up 92 extras, 74 of which were wides.

Winning the toss and batting, Martin Langford and Jon Legg (13) put on 112 for the first wicket.

Langford added a further 73 in partnership with Joe Baggs (63) before he was dismissed for 77. With Billy Walbridge weighing in with 32, Cattistock amassed 339-8 in their 45 overs.

◆ Martin Langford - 77 runs

Bournemouth 3rds also found the wicket to their liking in response with captain Harry Weal top scoring with 70 in a first wicket partnership of 126.

However, with Gavin Hale stuck at one end carrying his bat for 45 not out in the 45 overs, Bournemouth were never likely to threaten.

For the record Hale scored just a single in his first hour at the crease in an innings that lasted 2 hours 21 minutes!

County Division Three

BEAMINSTER 100 ALL OUT LOST TO

KINGSTON LACY 101-9 BY 1 WICKET

BEAMINSTER lost for the first time this season in a game dominated by the bowlers going down to Kingston Lacy in a nail-biting finish.

Beaminster were invited to bat and struggled throughout their innings.

After losing two early wickets opener Richard Runyard (34) and Will Everitt (28) shared a 53-run partnership.

Runyard continued his good early season form but when he tried to accelerate the scoring he was caught which sparked a collapse as Beaminster slipped from 75-2 to 100 all out, with a number of poor dismissals by the middle order.

Although the batting conditions were not ideal, the Beaminster players showed a lack of application and their score was at least 50 runs short of par at the Memorial Ground.

In the field, Beaminster started aggressively with opening bowlers Ross Baker and Everitt bowling full and straight to leave the visitors 2-2. Wickets fell regularly throughout the reply and were shared between Baker (2-16), Everitt (1-16) and first change bowler Adam Herring who continued his excellent form with 4-33.

When Adie Phillips took the ninth wicket on 99 all three results were possible before the last wicket pair managed to scramble a single to win the game in the 24th over.

WEYMOUTH 94 LOST TO

DORCHESTER 2ND 163 BY 69 RUNS

DORCHESTER 2nds made it a county town double with their win over their Weymouth counterparts at Redlands. Losing the toss they were asked to bat by their hosts, and Simon Joslin and Josh Foot made a steady start against a fairly lively opening Weymouth pair.

When Foot was trapped lbw, Joslin was joined by Malcolm Stroudley and they provided the basis for the Dorchester total, staying together until the 38th over when they both fell in quick succession trying to push the score along.

Wickets fell regularly as Dorchester tried to accelerate on a low scoring track but no one really succeeded and they were bowled out for 168.

Mike Peak and Stuart Beasley opened the bowling in reply and took a wicket each and with Weymouth struggling at 14-2 off 14 overs it looked unlikely they would reach the target, and so it proved as Weymouth were dismissed for 94.

Captain Beasley said: "We reckoned 168 might be enough and with them struggling early on we felt confident. "All our bowlers did well, but to be fair to the Weymouth batsmen they punished the few bad balls we bowled."

"All-in-all it was a fantastic win and it makes it better that it was a derby."

County Division Four

SWANAGE 2ND BEAT

BRIDPORT (SCRATCHED)

COUNTY DIVISION FIVE

CHARLTON DOWN 253-6 BEAT

BRADFORD ABBAS 149 BY 104 RUNS
CHARLTON DOWN playing their first home Saturday League match on grass, made it back-to-back wins with a 104-run victory over a Bradford Abbas team who were in no mood to give away bonus points and took the game to the 37th over with Rich Steadford finally out for a patient 98.

Bradford made good use of the favourable bowling conditions after inviting Charlton Down to bat first. Steve Cake dismissed Jae Miller (4) and Javed Gill (4) with 43 on the board, but Sam Roles and Matt Stevens were looking solid before Chris Douch produced an excellent yorker to dismiss Roles (36) with the score on 72-3.

However, the hosts' middle order produced three 50-run partnerships. The first came between Stevens and Cameron Lucas (24) who added 67 runs in only 11 overs, before Stevens was joined by Kim Park (56no) and added a further 57 runs before Stevens (54) was caught.

Debutant Robin Rutter then shared a partnership of 57 with Park taking the score to an imposing 253-6. Stevens' innings was pivotal to Charlton Down's recovery and included seven boundaries whilst the depth of their batting was shown with Park, coming in at number six, produced an innings mixed with great patience, smart running and some lusty blows including one enormous six.

The Bradford response got off to the worst possible start losing their first four wickets for only nine runs with some inspired bowling from Matt Stevens (3-31) and Dan Stevens (1-5). Dan struck with his second ball before older brother Matt produced a devastating spell, taking three wickets in five balls.

The change of bowling then-worked immediately with Roles and James Pretty taking a wicket each leaving Abbas struggling on 28-6 after 12 overs.

However, Steadford had other ideas and was unlucky to miss out on his century as he farmed the strike away from his inexperienced colleagues to accumulate 98 runs before being bowled by Roles in the 36th over.

Park wrapped up the innings to gain 20 hard earned points.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "It was a really good win and great to see players in good form with the bat and ball so early in the season, especially Matt and Dan Stevens."

"Playing on grass has been our aim at the club for the last two years and it is a great step forward for the club."

SHAFTESBURY 241-3 BEAT

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 139-6 BY 102 RUNS
AFTER losing the toss and fielding, the pitch offered some hope to the Martinstown bowlers, and indeed Shaftesbury had lost both their openers with the score on 28.

But this brought together Dave Toogood (55) and A Williams who put together a third wicket partnership of 200.

Williams, who played a high quality innings, finished with a flourish, hitting the final ball for six for an unbeaten 152 not out.

Against this onslaught, the Martinstown bowlers kept to their disciplines without the penetration needed to dislodge the set batsmen.

Ryan Blair took the two early wickets, and Grant Neven bowled seven overs for 35, which helped keep the score down, with James Pickering taking the other wicket to fall.

Williams was dominant in Shaftesbury's 40-over total of 241 for 3 but Martinstown only conceded 89 runs from other sources.

In truth the Martinstown batting line-up, missing two of the more powerful hitters through injury, did not have the firepower to chase down this total.

After a breezy start the reply of 139 for 6 relied largely on Olly Gargrave unbeaten 61.

Stewart Dawson's first knock of the season offered an entertaining 25 and Jamie Stewart defied a bad back to remain 8 not out.

Although a heavy defeat, it was a spirited performance by the Martinstown team.

County Division Six

PARLEY 5TH 201-6 LOST TO

BEAMINSTER 2ND 203-6 BY 4 WICKETS
DEAN Hyett was the star of the show as Beaminster 2nds recorded their first win in 24 games.

Set a target of 202 for victory, he dominated the proceedings, but all the batsmen played their part in giving him support, none more so than Jordan Nottley (2no), one of three 15-year-olds in the side, who helped him nudge them over the line.

Batting first, Parley were 90-4 at drinks, but with captain Mike Callaghan (40no) having joined Luke Neill (48) they hit out to set Beaminster a daunting target.

Justin Gurd with 3-41 was the most successful bowler whilst Terry Field took two superb catches.

Captain Gurd was ecstatic with his

◆ Dean Hyett - 145 not out

team's performance, he said: "It's a great feeling to have won after so long, and it was my first as captain."

"There was a really great atmosphere in the side before we took the field, and I hope this is the start of a few more victories."

"We've come a long way in the last few games, and with our young players now coming through and making an impression, let's hope for better things."

Sunday Division Three

SHILLINGSTONE 218-8 BEAT

SYMENE 70 BY 138 RUNS

SYMENE are in transition, and with none of them getting any younger, this season will be one of introducing a number of younger players to their ranks.

On Sunday they bled out four teenagers all of whom produced commendable performances.

Batting first, Shillingstone were in trouble at 114-5 when Ryan Broadwell-Miller, having just reached his half-century and looking threatening was brilliantly caught by one of the debutants, Luke Robinson.

Unfortunately, he was replaced by Bob Edwards who was in belligerent mood. Playing sensibly at first to see off Graham Bartlett's (4-19) eight overs, he opened up to score 58 and held his side to 218-8 off their allocation.

The evergreen Paul Edwards with 2-24 from five overs chipped in as did all four of the young bowlers.

All were allowed four overs Robinson claimed 1-15, whilst Ty Chant (0-21), George Wyrill (0-20) and Will Park (0-18) all bowled well.

But Symene could not match their hosts with only Phil Hawkins (15) getting into double figures as Frank Webber (4-23) and Broadwell-Miller who claimed 3-1 from the last over of the game, saw Symene dismissed for 70 all out.

One of the veterans Nick Skyrme said: "The four lads all played extremely well, and all of us were impressed by their attitude and fielding and indeed their bowling."

"We need younger blood in the side and I am convinced that we will win a game this season."

"If we had one more of our top bowlers available they would have run through Shillingstone and won the match."

BROADWINDSOR 133 LOST TO

BUTLEIGH 154 BY 21 RUNS

DEFENDING champions Broadwindsor are still looking for their first win of the season following defeat at the hands of the early leaders Butleigh, in a low scoring game.

The visitors were invited to bat first and struggled against the bowling of Adam Herring (4-18) and Ross Baker (1-30), with only A Drew (39) getting on top of the attack.

Broadwindsor lost three early wickets in reply and never really recovered.

Richie Runyard (21) and Dean Hyett (22) steadied the ship and captain Adie Phillips weighed in with an unbeaten 38, but couldn't stop Butleigh from winning with two balls to spare.

Lyme Regis golf

Two aces at the 3rd!

by Richard Jackman

THE midweek stableford saw new faces on the podium as Graig McGowan scored a brilliant 42 points to get his handicap down to 7.

Bernie Styles with 38 points, just pipped Colin Baker to 3rd place on countback.

The seniors' May stableford Division One was won by Roger Stokes' outstanding 42 points from Keith Gibson 38 and Stuart Briggs 33.

Division 2 was much closer as Dave Dallas just beat Barry Coleman on countback with 38 points and Michael List came 3rd with 35.

Highlight of the day though was Keith Gibson's hole-in-one on the 3rd, the first time 5 handicapper Keith has achieved this feat.

Lyme Regis had its club day on Saturday as a complete mixture of teams set out for a Texas scramble competition.

Although the day was more important than the result it perhaps typified the event that the age difference in the winning team was over 60 years.

Lady member Ronny Turner was teamed with young Zak Mudford, Steve Mudford and the vintage Mike Hankey.

Congratulations to Steve Mudford who equalled Keith's feat of the previous day by also scoring a hole-in-one on the 3rd hole. The golf was followed by a tasty barbecue and the more hardy ones danced the night away to 'Mother's Ruin'.

Gig racing

Mixed results for Bridport at World Champs

BRIDPORT Gig Rowing Club had mixed results when they competed at the World Pilot Gig

Rowing Championships in the Isles of Scilly over the May Bank Holiday weekend.

Despite some very challenging conditions on the Friday night the veteran's race went ahead, with the Bridport crews achieving some encouraging results.

The Ladies Vets A finished 12th rowing in Dagger, with the Ladies Vets B in Blaez achieving 41st out of 61 competing, whilst the Men's Vets A and B finished 24th and 48th respectively out of 48 racing.

The weather improved slightly on Saturday, but the wind and swell remained strong.

The first race of the main competition is a 1.8 mile race from St Agnes to St Mary's, which the vets also row, and determines the position of the crews for the next race.

There follows a shorter heat of which there are two more on the Sunday; the last being the final.

However the club received huge disappointment when, after the first race, the Men's A crew were disqualified for going over the start line.

There was greater upset when the ladies A crew were mistakenly disqualified in the process; resulting in them missing their first heat.

Despite this, the squads pulled together, and the remaining crews rowed their hardest and used the disappointment as an incentive to do even better.

As a result the Men's B crew finished in a very credible 86th place out of 137, while the Ladies A were reinstated and finished 53rd place, and B crew 103rd out of 141 boats.

For several rowers, this was their first championships, and for some their first ever competitive race.

The squad would all like to thank the captains; Kevin Batchelor and Rachel Hamblett for their hard work in organising the crews and coordinating the training sessions.

The season has only just begun and the club will spend the summer attending regattas all around the South West, with Bridport's own regatta being held on Sunday, June 21st.
